April 2 2021

Charlotte Dilworth South End
Rotary Club celebrating
71 years of service.
Charter 7076, 12/3/1948

President's Notes

Fellow Rotarians,

Last week we heard a speech unlike any other. It was supposed to be a speech about a long ago race riot in a distant town. It turned out to be a conversation about the suffering of 13.4% of our population, and the trials, the suffering, and the start of a dark chapter in our history. The speaker was David Cecelski. I can't do the speech justice. Please take a few minutes to watch it, I assure you it will not leave you unmoved. At one level it is a talk about race relations but it is also a call to humanity. As Rotarians we need to do our part.

Hybrid Meetings: We have tentative date of May 7, 2021, for restarting our meetings in person at the Dilworth Neighborhood Bar and Grill. We will continue to offer a Zoom option for people to attend and potentially to bring in virtual speakers. Please give me and your board feedback on your thoughts about meeting again indoors and in person.

On the Service Project Front: Please consider signing up. MedAssist has three openings for April 13. Thank you to Jerry Coughter, David Hodgkins and Sofeya Carpano for participating in MedAssist on March 23!

On the Social Front: Our "Bring a Friend to Rotary" social was an unqualified success. Photos and information follow. With vaccinations up and increasing, the opportunity to meet in person is more likely than in the past.

Our next "Bring a Friend to Rotary" will be April 30, 2021. This will be in lieu of our weekly meeting. Please plan to be there and please also consider inviting people to Rotary. Your Rotary journey was a gift to you. Please share it with others so they too can enjoy it.

Please join us on April 2, 2021, at 6 pm for our virtual social. We will play games that made the last virtual social such a success. Game Alert: Jim Stump, Amarja Webb and Angie Rickard will be given slow buzzers so that the rest of us have a chance at winning.

Here is What You Need to Know About Variants

Bill Gates

This month marks one year since the COVID-19 pandemic upended lives around the world. It's been a long, difficult year, but now that more and more people are getting vaccinated against the virus, I'm starting to feel optimistic that the worst parts of the pandemic will soon be behind us.

We still have a number of challenges to address before we get there. The virus that causes COVIS-19 is mutating, and that's complicating efforts to end the pandemic. I've been getting asked a lot of questions about variants lately, so I wrote a post about the subject. You can read it here.

If there's only one thing people learn about variants, it should be this: The best way to prevent new strains of the coronavirus from emerging is by stopping transmission of the virus altogether. We will bring an end to the pandemic much sooner if everyone remains vigilant about social distancing, wears a mask, and gets vaccinated when its their turn.

SOUTH CHARLOTTE WEEKLY NEWS BRIEFS

Harding Shinn

South Charlotte Rotary Club honors member for half century of perfect attendance

The Charlotte Dilworth South End Rotary Club honored member Harding Shinn for 50 years of perfect attendance.

"When Harding started his 50 years of perfect attendance, it was more difficult to achieve perfect attendance," rotary club president Glenn Hines said in a news release. "There were only a few clubs in Mecklenburg to visit to make up for a missed meeting, (and) the rules about makeup were stricter, so it makes Harding's achievement even more remarkable."

After President Hines presented Shinn with a plaque commemorating his achievement, members of the club signed the back of the plaque.

NEWS

Shinn is a past president of the club, and a member of the greatest generation. He served as a pilot instructor for World War II bombers and retired as a lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Air Force Reserve.

CPCC's nursing program earns accreditation

The Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN) has recommended initial accreditation of Central Piedmont Community College's (CPCC) nursing program. Initial accreditation lasts for five years.

The decision was made after ACEN representatives conducted a site visit on Sept. 16 to 18, and found the program to be in compliance with all six ACEN standards. During the visit, the site visit team conducted a public feedback meeting, met with CPCC faculty, staff and students and toured CPCC's Central Campus, including the Belk and Health Education Building, where the program is housed.

The CPCC nursing program received exemplary remarks from the site visit team. ACEN representatives specifically noted the strong support and resources provided by the college and the nursing program, the beauty of the campus' buildings, the work ethic, devotion and passion of CPCC's nursing program faculty, the commitment of the program's instructors and students and the quality of the program's clinical facilities, according to a news release.

"Our faculty has always known that our graduate nurses were high quality – that has been evident in our graduate and employer surveys for years," Lisa List, chair of CPCC's Nursing program, said in the release. "But it is great to have that affirmation from an outside agency like the ACEN – to show our graduates, current students, employers and the public that our program is top notch. The faculty is committed to continuing the high standards of accreditation and

Free Enterprise

Charlie Bradley with Brian Hamilton, Brian Hamilton Foundation

We are excited to share the announcement of Free Enterprise, a new TV show on ABC debuting on April 3 that highlights formerly incarcerated individuals who have started their own businesses after struggling to find consistent employment due to their criminal record.

The show stars Brian Hamilton, who in addition to being one of the nation's foremost entrepreneurs, has been working for decades to help formerly incarcerated individuals start low capital businesses. We are happy to present these stories of hope, redemption, and success in the face of life's greatest hurdles.

We think you will be entertained and inspired by these stories, and we hope you will tune in starting this Saturday, April 3. You can check your local ABC listings for when it will air in your specific area each Saturday.

Rotary Chocolate & Beverage Pairing

April 24, 2021

Hosted by:

Trish Buzzone (Pagano), Regional Business Manager for Lindt & Sprungli

James Pagano, Certified Executive Coach and Rotarian with Mecklenburg County South

Overview:

This will be a fun and interactive discussion on the best way to enjoy chocolate.

We will walk through the 5 steps of chocolate tasting and then we will explore how your favorite beverage can enhance that experience.

Prior to the Session:

We ask all attendees to purchase:

- (2) different brands of White Chocolate Bars
- (2) different brands of Milk Chocolate Bars
- (2) different brands of Dark Chocolate Bars

As a suggestion the attendees might purchase their favorite chocolate and then try something totally new. The brand does not matter but they may want to consider purchasing different price points too (i.e. a Hershey bar and a Lindt bar).
